MOTHERS WHOSE SONS SERVED IN WAR

Nominating Committee Appointed At Meeting Held Last Night

WILL ORGANIZE JULY 25

All Mothers Whose Sons Served Are Invited to Become Charter Members of Organization.

Preliminary steps for the forming of a permanent organization of the mothers of all men who served the colors during the late war were taken at a mass meeting of the War Camp Community Service Club.

Mrs. T. Clifton Howard presided and explained in detail the purpose of the forming of such an organization.

It was stated that the mothers of all men who served the colors during the war, including the army, marines and navy, regardless of whether or not they served overseas, are entiled to membership.

A nominating commitee was appointed and it is proposed to effect a permanent organization at another meeting which will be held the night of July 25 at the same place and same hour. This will be done by electing officers and appointing committees after which other details incident to the organization will be mapped out.

This organization will be operated on lines somewhat similar to the Daughters of the American Revolution and the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Similar organizations are now being formed throughout the United States.

Every mother whose son served is cordially invited to attend the next meeting and come in as a charter member.

SHIP LABORERS WALK OUT

General Strike of Firemen, Oilers And Water Tenders Called

New York, July 11.—A strike of marine firemen, oilers and water tenders was called yesterday along the entire North Atlantic and Mexican Gulf coasts from Galveston, Texas, to Portland, Maine. The strike leaders assert that the entire fishing industry and all provately owned vessels will be tied up by the walkout. The strikers demand an increase of $15 a month in wages and closed shops.

The strike is effective against all ships except those operated by the United States Shipping Board, and three delegates have been chosen to go to Washington to confer tomorrow with the bard. The leaders claim that the Shipping Board has given a tentative agreement to their demands, but that if the agreement is not carried out the Federal boats also will be tied up.

A sympathetic strike has been declared by the Fishermen's Union of the Atlantic, which, according to its president, John R. Folan, has 12,000 members. The combined number of those on strike, according to their leaders, is 25,000. They say that there are 150 ships in New York harbor affected and that others will be tied up as soon as they arrive in port.

Secretary Oscar Carlson, of the firemen's union, said the men were ordered out primarily because the American Steamship Association had refused to treat with the union in any way or to recognize it.

LITTLE HOPE FOR WET CHAMPIONS

President May Not Act Until Americans Reach Homes

MAY MEAN JANUARY 1

As Long as Any Troops Are Abroad Wilson Inclines to Opinion That Demobilization Not Complete

Washington, July 11.—A Presidential proclamation lifting the ban against the liquor traffic as provided for under the wartime prohibition act is at best only a remote possibility. In some quarters it is regarded as out of the question.

At his conference with newspaper correspondents yesterday morning—the first the President has held since 1917—it became known that he will stand rigidly upon the proposition that the army must be demobilized and the peace proclamation issued before he will feel obligated legally to authorize the reopening of the saloons.

If he, therfore, awaits both developments, the chances are that constiuttional prohibition will have gone into effect before the time will arrive for him to act. This is contrary, of course, to the understanding which prevailed in official circles two weks ago when word came from him, the nin Paris, that he would issue his liquor proclamation as soon as the demobilization of the army was an accomplished fact.

The expectation at that time was that all the emergency troops would be back in civil life before September or October, at the outside. It was known that certain of the troops would remain in France for an indefinite period, but it was assumed that they would be regulars or replacement troops, now being recruited. From views expressed by the President yesterday, however, it is evident that as long as any troops are abroad, he will incline to the opinion that demobilization has not come to pass.

Morecver, the President takes the position that the peace proclamation must be issued also before it will be his duty to life the liquor embargo. How long this will be no man can tell.

JURY TO PROBE DEATH

Slayer of Washington Youth to ... Stand Alone When Shooting .. Case is Aired

Facing a charge of murder, former Policeman Henry Arthur Starr, responsible for the death in Washington Wednesday, of Leo A. McLeod, 16 years old, will probably be called before the grand jury this morning to enter a legal battle for liberty and possibly life.

The case against the former policeman hinges on the fact of whether he was justified in firing on a car without being certain that a crime was being committed, and when his life was not in danger.

Inspector Grant said last night that the former patrolman acted without authority and directly against police regulations, which specifically provide that an officer must not use his revolver or baton except in self defense.

The three companions of the slain youth will appear against the former patrolman, and it is believed evidence will be submitted which will show that the boys were merely exuberant and not violating any civic ordinances.

Attorney Michael F. Mangan will appear in self defense of Starr.

Apparently the police department will not endeavor to support the former patrolman, as Major Pullman said last night Starr was not justified in using his revolver.

A member of the American peace delegation characterized the reports as "perfect rubbish."

KILLS BETRAYER

West Virginian Shot Man Who Attacked His Daughter

Cumberland, Md., July 11.—Tony Somma, 43 years old, employe of the Western Maryland Railroad and merchant at Ridgeley, W. Va., who on the night of June 21 shot and killed Raffaello Clento, the alleged betrayer of his 14 year old daughter, surrendered himself to the Mineral county authorities at Keyser Tuesday afternoon. Somma stands well at Ridgeley and an effort is being made by citizens to secure his release.

In a statement, Somma declares he acted in self defense, and in this he is backed up by statements by his wife and daughetr, Rose, the alleged victim of Clento.

Clento became a boarder at the Somma home in April. Some time after he is alleged to have attacked the girl, but she was afraid to inform on him because of his threats to kill her if she did. It was known by the Sommas, they claim, that Clento had served a sentence in Pennsylvania for cutting with a knife a girl he attempted to ravish. They say they thought he had reformed. According to the statements, Clento, when confronted by the girl's father, consented to marry her. The father acceded to his demand to settle on him $600, and the services of the priest were engaged. Clento then demanded that Somma turn over to him property which he owned in Italy. This Somma said he could not do in justice to his other children. Clento then stated he would not marry the girl, whereupon Somma declared he would inform the authorities. Clento is alleged to have seized a knife and to have made for Somma. The latter, however, was too quick for him, having jerked a revolver from a bureau drawer and shot Clento before he could reach him.

The shooting occurred in the front room of the Somma home. The girl and her mother, who had been preparing the children for bed in the next room, heard the conversation and witnessed the tragedy.

GLAD TO ACCEPT LEAGUE

Austria Willing From Very First Moment of Proposal to Join in Plan

Paris, July 11.—Sympathy with the idea of the League of Nations and an expression of willingness to be satisfied with taking the role of a participating member an that organization and enjoy its protection, was expressed in the Austrian reply to the Allied peace terms made public here Wednesday.

The reply was dated at St. Germain en-Laye, June 23, in the form of a communication from Chancellor Renner, head of the Austrian Peace Delegation, to Premier Clemenceau as President of the Peace Conference.

The reply sets forth that the delegation recognized that German Austria, as the text of the note names the nation, could not well take a part in the problem of creating the League "which by its very nature remains in the hands of the great Powers," but will be glad of its protection "without taking any important part in the rights and obligations entailed by membership in this league."

The note pointed out that German Austria had been charged with "the responsibility for the war" but said that it had been thus changed "without any fault of its own."

The principles upon which the now nation are founded are set forth as essentially democratic, the principle being those of the Social Democratic and Christian Socialist parties. Essentially therefore, the note continues, the nation is founded "on the two principal classes, workmen and peasants, who under the old regime never had a real share in the direction of the State and could never freely realize their political aims."

"It is the revolution," continues the exposition, "which had issured a full and complete preponderance to democracy in our country."

The history of the democratic movement in Austria since 1848 is gone into by the note. The idea of the movement, it is claimed, was to transform the country into a confederation of nations in each of which the people should govern themselves.

DESTRUCTION BY TORNADO

Pennsylvania Towns Badly Damaged by Storm Last Night

LIGHTNING KILLS TWO

Many Dwelling Houses in Ruins and Devastation in Evidence in Path of Storm.

Bradford, Pa., July 11.—This city is recovering from the worst tornado that ever visited this immediate section, and many families whose homes are wrecked are being cared for by the relief committee.

Two persons were killed and many others injured. The storm struck last night.

While the wires are down and details are not all in, it is known that at least fifty dwelling houses are in ruins and as many more so damaged as to make rebuilding necessary.

The storm followed a big black cloud which came up in the southwest and swooped down upon Bradford, striking that section and sections of the Fifth ward.

Nearly all of Clarion streets is wiped out and houses on Rochester and High streets are wrecked.

Mrs. Mary Biddle, an aged woman, who lived in the path of the storm, was found dead about a hundred feet from her home. She had been hurled the entire distance when hen home was struck. Several families on Clarion street had members hurt.

Burgettstown, Pa., July 11.—Two persons were killed and seven badly burned and shocked near Raccoon Creek, eight miles from Coropolis, when a tree under which they were standing was struck by lightning during the severe electrical storm and cloudburst that broke over the Pittsburgh district late yesterday morning.

The dead are Rev. O. J. Hutchison, of Cork, pastor of the Hebron Presbyterian Church, near Clinton, and Dorothy Hutchison, aged 11, a daughter. The injured are Mrs. Hutchison, severely burned; Marjorie Hutchison, aged 7, a daughter, burns and shock; Mary Hutchison, aged 3, a daughter; Hilda Holmes, aged 20, of Clinton, badly burned; Dora Franch, aged 16, of Clinton. The tragedy occurred at a Boy Scout camp at a place known as Backbone, on Raccoon Creek, about four miles from Clinton. The clergyman was scout master of Troop No. 1, of Clinton.

TRIALS OF A BOOTLEGGER

West Virginia Officers Trace Curious History of Miller's 88 Gallons

Mannington, W. Va., July 11.—Charles Miller of Wheeling has been indicated for bringing a truckload of whisky into this State from Ohio. Officers say Miller hauled in 88 gallons and foreigners who witnessed the burying without Miller's knowledge, "exhumed" the liquor, making away with it. One gallon went to Mannington, where it was sold. The 87 gallons in jugs were lowered into a 550-gallon water tank and there it remained until a few days ago, when the tank was drained and the party of roustabouts distributed the stuff throughout the oil fields. It is stated that 10-gallon kegs of whisky replaced water tanks and that oil well crews drank whisky in tin cups. When the water supply of the field was suddenly found exhausted, an investigation revealed the cause. The wells were put out of commission for several days. It is alleged that one 10-gallon keg was carried through the woods for a distance of at least 10 miles by a party of foreigners. Most of the whisky has disappeared and officers are hunting for the few remaining gallons hidden away in caves and cellars.

PRESIDENT WILL DISCUSS TREATY

Willing to Appear Before Senate Roreign Relations Committee

STRONG ARGUMENTS

Experts at Variance Over Question Whether a Majority or Two-Thirds Vote is Necessary on League.

President Wilson's expression of willingness to appear before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee at any time to be questioned concerning the treaty and the league was pointed to today by those favoring ratification as evidence of his confidence that the documents cannot be successfully attacked.

The President, it was said, is quite ready to discuss the provisions with his opponents whenever they are ready to meet him.

Administration Senators said they were sure that after much verbal battling on the floor, the treaty and league would win when it came to a vote.

They considered the President, in his speech of yesterday, withheld most of his strong arguments to use later in the campaign, after the opposition has revealed its own line of assault more clearly.

President Wilson and Senate legal experts were at odds today over the question whether a majority or two thirds vote is required to adopt reservations to the peace treaty.

Wilson is known to believe that any reservation which is intended to be a permanent part of the treaty must get a two-thirds vote.

The rule itself says two-thirds for ratification and for "all other motions a majority."

An interesting argument between Administration forces and league opponents over construction of this rul appears certain.

THE PEOPLE WANT TO HEAR.

The action of President Wilson yesterday in reading his report of the Peace Conference before the Senate with the doors wide open and an invitation to the people to come and hear is greeted with approval by the great mass of Americans, as he took the people in his confidence. A few minutes after the close of the procedure extra papers containing his address were being circulated in the capital city, and a few hours later the message to the American people was being read throughout the nation.

We have ever had the greatest confidence in Woodrow Wilson and we are sure while engaged in his momentous task he has acted for the good of the world while primarily laboring in the interests of the nation he has so ably represented for years.

The document should be read closely. While some matters have necessarily been kept back, in the main his message is all that could be desired. That it will prove satisfactory is admitted even by many not alligned with him politically.

The President did not go into the intricacies of the treaty, although he did not give a few details, but said of it that it "constitutes nothing less than a world settlement." He made it exceedingly plain that the League afforded the machinery for operating much of it, and that without it the treaty would become a mere scrap of paper. Most of his address was devoted to the League, which he pronounced to be a practical necessity—"an indispensable instrumentality for the maintenance of the new order." We have become a world power, he said—had become a power after the war with Spain. "The only question is whether we can refuse the moral leadership that is offered us; whether we shall accept or reject the confidence of the world."

"My services," he said to the assembled Senators, "and all the information I possess will be at your disposal and at the disposal of your Committee on Foreign Relations at any time, either informally or in session, as you may prefer, and I hope that you will not hesitate to make use of them."

THE CIRCUMLOCUTION OFFICE.

Students of Dickens see many things which correspond closely to certain evils the great novelist attacked while in the flesh. One of the most interesting of his productions was "Little Dorritt." Dickens in this book portrays teh horrors of what he calls "The Circumlocution Office," which retarded the righting of wrongs and existed for no purpose save to provide sinecures for certain indiyiduals who, commercially, would have been ciphers all their lives.

Norman Lee Molzahn died of a contagious disease and was buried temporarily in an area in the District of Columbia provided for such. Now his father, desiring to secure a permanent burial for the remains, must go through the following procedure before the necessary permit is granted:

Have a bill introduced in the House with a hearing before the District Committee.

Passing of the bill by the House.

Introduction of the bill in the Senate.

Hearing before the Senate Committee on the District.

Passage by the Senate.

Transmission by Executive offices to District Commissioners.

Thence to Health Officer and by that official to the bereaved parents of the boy.

In any other American city, where the people vote, the parents could have secured the necessary permit with the dash of a pen by the Coroner of the Health Department.

PROFITS OF PUGILISM

Those who imagined that the nation had gone fightmad and who pictured streams of excited pugilistic fans pouring into the city of Toledo for the Willard-Dempsey fray will be surprised to learn that the paid attendance was exactly 19,650 persons, and this in spite of the fact that the great arena was constructed to seat 97,000. We have had many more thousands at football games in this city and at world's serious baseball games, although it must be confessed that the tariff was never so high as at the Western event. Even those who disapprove of such contests will be glad to know that the United Statees Government will receive over $40,000 of the proceeds as a war tax and the city of Toledo $28,000 for its charities. Besides his dislocated jaw and broken nose, Mr. Willard takes away $100,000 at least, while the victorious Mr. Dempsey receives $27,500 and pickings and the promoter wins something less than $100,000. But these amounts are subject to heavy Federal taxation.

All of this is interesting, if not edifying. To some it may take away the sting of the high cost of living and to others it may be conclusive proof of the fact that fools and their money are just as easily parted as ever. Incidentally, it looks as if Willard got his money easily, if, indeed, he did not receive it under false pretenses. The thought of paying a man big money merely to receive a beating does not appeal to the popular imagination. But the thought of a contest, either of brain or brawn, in the forum or on the race track, always stirs the blood of an American regardless of age or condition in life. The old-time prize fighters never received a prize unless they won. John L. Sullivan, the idol of the fight fans, when he lost the championship also lost the money, and it is said had to borrow carfare to get back home.

But things are different now and the up to date pugilist is a business man, even if he is not a fighter, and all will agree that the recent fistic event was, above all else, a business affair.—(Philadelphia Inquirer.

Two hundred prisoners and eight machine guns were captured. It is added that the Bolsheviki are pursuing the North Russian forces.

AUGUST WILHELM A CLERK.

Son of William Hohenzollern, Late of Berlin, Enters Bank

Berlin, July 11.—Berlin, July 11.—August Wilhelm, one of Wiliam Hohenzollerns sons, actually has gone to work, it was discovered Wednesday. It would appear that he's ashamed of it, however, as everything is being done to shroud the fact with mystery.

This much is known; "Owgoost" is working as an ordinary bank clerk for a local firm and he intends to grow up into a regular banker and everything. Inasmuch as the kid is only 32 years old, there appears to be every likelihood that he may yet be the hero of one of those "from office boy to magnate" romances.

August Wilhelm is the only one of Papa Bill's sons about whom the former Kaiser could truthfully say, "I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier." He studied to be a lawyer, and when he passed the bar examination the Hohenzollerns gathered around while the old man told "Owgoost" how proud he was of his young hopeful.

You Can't Cure Rheumatism With Liniments and Lotions

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?

Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain.

You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has no equal as a blood purifier, scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store and get on the right treatment to-day. If you want special medical advice, address Medical Director, 49 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

FIRE DESTROYS SIX STORES

Loss of $60,000 in Fredericksburg; Appeal to Richmond for Aid

Fredericksburg, Va., July 11.—Fire yesterday destroyed stores of J. W. Adams, books, stationary; S. Kaufman, jeweler, with stocks and goods injured; stores and stocks of K. N. Goolick, druggist; Brown and Crismond, shoe store; Baker and Wallace, wholesale dry goods and Singer Machine Company. The loss was about $60,000. All carried some insurance. Mayor Rowe wired Richmond for help, but the fire was controlled before the engine started.

CHALONER SEEKS JUSTICE

Asks New York Courts to Declare Him of Sound Mind

New York, July 11.—Application to be declared sane of the Supreme Court of New York State, and to have Thomas T. Sherman removed as committee of his estate, was filed for John Armstrong Chaloner, Merry Mills, Va., millionaire, by his attorneys here Wednesday. Chaloner although declared sane by Virginia Courts in 1901, has been legally insane in New York since his commitment to an asylum in 1897. He escaped a few months later, and returning to New York recently under protection of a Federal Court order, won a libel suit against a new York newspaper in which the question of his sanity was at issue.

Chaloner alleges in his application that he was committed to the Bloomingdale Asylum in 1897 and of his estate without his being given an oportunity to be heard.

Chaloner quotes a letter said to be from his sister, Elizabeth Chapman, declaring his brothers and sisters will do nothing to obstruct any steps Chaloner may take to recover full control of his "rights and property" nor do anything to interfere with his personal freedom. The application was scheduled for hearing on July 15. If Chaloner's claim, that his kinsfolk are now willing to have him restored to complete freedom of person and property, proves to be justified, the application may be approved at that time on default of respondents.

ATTRACTS LIGHTNING

Bolt Hits Charles Twitty, Shipbuilder, While he is at Work—Condition Precarious

Baltimore, July 11.—While working as a ship carpenter at the plant of the Coastwise Shipbuilding Company, foot of Andre street, shortly before 10 a. m., yesterday, Charles Twitty, 26 years old, of 806 Shuter street, was struck by a bolt of lightning and rendered unconscious. Twitty was working on a ship at the time, when one of the workers saw him throw up his hands and fall.

Due to an accident a few years ago, Twitty had a metal plate in his leg, and it is thought that this attracted the bolt which struck him. No fire was caused by the lightning and none of the other workmen were injured.

Twitty was badly shocked, but at the hospital he regained consciousness. His condition is precarious.

KILLED AFTER WEDDING.

Mantua, N. J., July 11.—Miss Margaret Carre, aged 23 years, struck by an automobile Wednesday evening as she stepped from another car, was run over and received injuries from which she died shortly after. No one is blamed for the accident.

Miss Carre had been attending a wedding and a big party had prepared to accompany the bride and groom in a "send off" gathering. The party had stopped to make some changes. Miss Carre alighting stepped in front of an auto run by William D. Dufield, a Woodbury caterer, and was knocked down and run over. She was carried to her home, a short distance away, but died within a few moments.

The marriage of Miss Luvene Robinson and Samuel Allen was marred by the untoward event.

FAVORS A SIX-CENT PIECE

Johnstown, Pa., July 10.—Before returning to Washington after the Fourth of July recess, Congressman Rose announced that he proposed to investigate the feasibility of coining six-cent pieces and, if there are no obstacles in the way, to introduce legislation to that end in the House of Representatives.

"I have been repeatedly impressed by the need of six-cent coins while the penny is in such demand for payment of various taxes," he said. "The luxury taxes and others require odd cents. Many of the trolley companies of the country are charging six-cent fares. If it were possible to have six-cent pieces coined I am sure it would be a great convenience to the American public."

WINNING WAY IN STORM

R-34 Reported 750 Miles Out at Midnight—Going Direct to London

At midnight the R-34 was in mid-Atlantic, winging her way at a fast clip toward London on the return lap of her over ocean trip.

The last message received by the Navy Department last night from the dirigible was timed 20:50 G. M. T. (4:50 Washington time.) The message said the ship was proceeding due east at a speed of fifty knots. It gave her position as 750 miles due east of Boston.

Electrical disturbances had been encountered in the flight, the message declared, but there was no indication that they had impeded the progress.

The R-34 is making for London, Major Scott, commanding the British dirigible, advised the Navy Department, instead of going direct to Scotland.

GOES TO TEXAS AS RECTOR

Richmond, Va., July 11.—The Rev. L. Valentine Lee, assistant rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, this city, a graduate of the Virginia Theological Seminary, yesterday announced that he had accepted a call to become rector of a new church in Eastwood, a fashionable suburb of Houston, Texas. He will enter upon his duties there September 1 and will be under Bishop Kinsolving, of Texas Diocese, a brother of the Rev. Arthur B. insolving, of Baltimore. He had complete charge of the parish work at St. Paul's while the rector, Dr. Russell Bowie, was overseas with a hospital unit last year.

THEATRES

INGOMAR—FRED STONE

If you have youth in your heart, no matter what your age, you should see "Under the Top," which shows at the Ingomar Theatre today. This second Artcraft picture starring Fred Stone is a wonderful story of laughter and thrills. The famous comedian is so absolutely different in his methods of fun-creating that he is in a class by himself and he bids fair to create a new style in acrobatic humor. "Under the Top" is a story of circus life and it is said to be taken from Fred Stone's early experiences, when, as a youngster, he longed for the life "under the big tops."

One of the liveliest comedies seen here in a long while is "The Village Chestnut," a new Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy which will be shown with the above. The comedians are Louise Fazenda, Chester Conklin and Myrtle Lind. The farce is enjoyed hugely by big audiences at every showing of the film.

RICHMOND—Mabel Normand

Mabel Normand's newest Goldwyn picture is "The Pest," It comes to the Richmond Theatre tonight and it bids fair to cause gales of hearty laughter, with a catch in the throat now and then when the vivacious star becomes wistful and pathetic. "The Pest," is a happy combination of all the elements that go to please the vast majority.

DOUBLE AT THE GRAND

One of the most distinctive achievements in the realm of motion pictures has been recorded in "Together," the charming Bluebird photoplay in which beautiful Violet Mersereau portrays three roles—a mother, daughter and son. When the picture, which is made in five reels, comes to the Grand Theatre Miss Mersereau will be seen in several thrilling scenes, playing dual roles. Also Neal Hart in "The Raid,' a western thriller.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
